Are you looking for accredited learning for your existing or aspiring Middle Leaders?

Do you want this training to be cost effective and cause minimal disruption to the day to day running of your school?

The National Award for Middle Leaders is an effective pathway for developing new or aspiring middle leaders on a programme which is nationally recognised, accredited and quality assured by the Specialist Schools and Academies Trust. The award offers a route to achieving a Masters Accreditation through points exemption from the University of Nottingham course modules (minimum of 5 modules)

We deliver 6 modules throughout the academic year. The sessions will run from 2pm -4pm on the dates below. All modules are accredited by SSAT and delegates will receive a certificate upon completion of their final module.
